Whitehall, June 2.

THE King has been pleased to grant to the Honourable Thomas Francis Wenman, Doctor of Laws, the Place or Office of Professor of the Civil Law, in the University of Oxford, in the Room of Doctor Robert Vansittart, deceased.

The King has been pleased to grant unto John Raymond, of Fairford Park, in the County of Gloucester, Esq; His Royal Licence and Authority, that he and his Issue may take and use the Surname of Barker, and bear the Arms of Barker, pursuant to the last Will and Testament of Either Lambe, deceased, Widow and Relict of James Lambe, and sole surviving Daughter and Heiress of Samuel Barker, both of Fairford Park aforesaid, Esqrs. deceased; such Arms being first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms, and recorded in the Heralds Office; and also to order that this His Majesty's Concession and Declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

The following Address having been delivered to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Burgesses, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Corporation of Monaghan.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Burgesses, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Corporation of Monaghan, beg Leave, with all Humility, to approach your Throne, and in the general Exultation of all your Majesty's Subjects, to join our most hearty Congratulations on your Majesty's Recovery from your late Illness.

Feeling, as we have ever felt, the numerous Advantages we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Government, we receive the Return of your Majesty's Health as the greatest Blessing which Providence in our Affliction for your Illness could have granted.

That the same Providence which has thus signally interfered in the Restoration of the best of Kings to the Government of these Realms, may, through the whole Course of a long and happy Life, protect and defend your Majesty, is our sincere and ardent Prayer.

In Testimony whereof, the Provost of the said Corporation hath hereunto subscribed his Name, and affixed his Seal of Office, the 20th of April, 1789. Ja. Hamilton, Provost.

[Delivered by Lord Clermont.]

The following Addresses having been transmitted by his Excellency the Marquis of Buckingham, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Wexford, at Spring Assizes assembled, beg Leave humbly to approach the Throne, and, with Hearts full of Loyalty and Affection, to express our sincere Congratulations upon the happy Event which has restored your Majesty to our fervent Prayers.

The many invaluable Blessings which this Kingdom has received during your Majesty's auspicious Reign are deeply impressed on our Minds, and have justly endeared to us your Majesty's Royal Person, Family and Government.

Your Majesty has already, in the Deepness of our Affliction, received the best Tribute of our Duty: It is your Majesty's peculiar Fortune to reign in the Hearts of a free People: May it be theirs long to enjoy the Continuance of your Majesty's many and inestimable Virtues.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Protestant Dissenting Ministers of such Congregations of Ireland as are distinguished by the Name of Seceders.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dissenting Ministers of such Congregations of Ireland as are distinguished by the Name of Seceders, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne: With the most heartfelt Sincerity and Joy we congratulate your Majesty on the Re-establishment of your Majesty's Health, and ardently pray for its Continuance.

We are very sensible that the Liberty of Conscience, which we and our Congregations so happily enjoy, enjoy, was principally owing to the Glorious Revolution under the late King William the Third; and that the very happy Accession of the Illustrious House of Hanover to the British Throne confirmed and ensured the Continuance of this Blessing to us.

We and our Congregations have already, in many Instances, experienced the benign Effects of your Majesty's most mild and gentle Government; and we bless the Great Disposer of all Good, that He has graciously heard our Prayers, and spared your precious Life to guard the Civil and Religious Liberty of your People.

Your Majesty may be assured of our zealous Attachment to your Royal Person, Family and Government, and that we shall at all Times retain the liveliest Sense, and inculcate upon the numerous Congregations under our pastoral Care, the lively Recollection of the signal Blessings which they and we have experienced, and the many Favours conferred on this Country in the Course of your Majesty's propitious and glorious Reign.

We shall always look upon it as our Duty to offer up our most humble Prayers to the King of Kings, that He may continue your Majesty long to be a Blessing to your numerous Family, and the Father of your People; and that the Illustrious House of Hanover may not want a King to sit upon the Throne of Britain for ever.

Signed in their Name, and by their Order, this 12th Day of May, 1789.

And to Three Private Bills.

His Excellency was then pleased to make the following Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

THE Business of this interesting Session being concluded, I am happy to release you from further Attendance in Parliament, and to communicate to you the strongest Assurances of His Majesty's paternal Regard, and of the Satisfaction He feels in the growing Prosperity of His People of Ireland.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

In Obedience to the King's Commands, I am to thank you, in His Majesty's Name, for the Supplies which you have granted for the Public Exigencies, and for the Support of His Majesty's Government; and you may be assured of my Care and Attention to the proper Application of them.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I behold with the highest Satisfaction the increasing Wealth and Commerce of this Kingdom, the natural Effect of good Order and of active Industry, encouraged, protected and extended by the several salutary Laws which from Time to Time have been enacted for those Purposes. I am happy to think that a permanent Foundation is laid for the further Improvement of the Country by the Act now passed for the Promotion and Encouragement of Inland Navigation: A System which, connected with the prosperous State of your Agriculture, promises, with the Blessing of Divine Providence, to secure to every Part of the Kingdom the fullest Enjoyment of that essential Article of your Commerce, the Trade of Corn.

You well know how greatly the Interests of the Nation are forwarded by the Preservation of Peace, and by the enforcing a due Submission to the Laws; and I have the most perfect Confidence, that, upon your Return to your respective Counties, you will impress these Ideas on the Minds of those who look up to your Example, and are directed by your Influence. My Conduct shall be uniformly governed by every Principle which can tend to promote the Welfare and Happiness of Ireland.

After which the Speaker, by his Excellency's Command, said,

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IT is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleasure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Monday the 27th Day of July next, to be then here holden: And this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Monday the 27th Day of July next.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, May 29, 1789.

SUCH Ladies as desire to dance Minuets at the Ball which is to be at St. James's on Thursday next, the 4th of June, are requested to send their Names and Rank, in Writing, to this Office, on or before Tuesday the 2d of June, and to send for their Tickets the next Day (Wednesday) between the Hours of Ten in the Morning and Two in the Afternoon.

TO prevent the Inconveniencies which have arisen from the Space before Their Majesties, which is allotted for Minuet Dancing, being exceedingly crowded, it is requested, that those Ladies only who mean to dance will send for Dancers Tickets, and sit in those Places, as the Seats have been found too few to accommodate the Dancers.

Constantinople, April 15.

On the 13th Instant the Sultan, attended by all the Grandees, went on Horseback to the Mosque of Eiub, where the Ceremony of girding on the Imperial Cimeter was performed with the usual Pomp, amidst a great Concourse of People. In the Procession from the Seraglio through the City, a Sum of Money, to the Amount of Fifteen Thousand Pounds, in small Silver Pieces, loaded on Ten Mules, was thrown amongst the Populace; and what has not always been the Case on similar Occasions, no one lost his Life in the Scramble. His Highness returned by Water down the Harbour, and was saluted by all the Ships, as well Christians as Turks. The first Entertainment given by the Sultan, was a Tournament, as more consistent in Time of War than Music and Dancing.
